Recovery Day Ceremony Slated for State House

Recovery Day will be celebrated between noon and 4 p.m. Monday, Sept. 17, at the State House in Trenton with entertainment, a proclamation ceremony and a special closing. People in recovery from alcohol and drug diseases, their family and friends, addiction treatment professionals and the general public are welcome at the program.

The event is sponsored by the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence-New Jersey and Friends of Recovery-New Jersey.

People in recovery also will share their stories during the program, which will take place rain or shine.

Also in honor of Recovery Month, Friends of Recovery-New Jersey (FOR-NJ) will staff an information booth between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. at Septemberfest at Veterans Park, Kuser Park, Hamilton.

In addition, FOR-NJ needs help designing a logo and asks that artwork be submitted for consideration. There will be no remuneration for submissions or to the chosen logo designer. Entries should be sent to Yury Tarnavskyj, NCADD-New Jersey, 1675 Whitehorse-Mercerville Road, Suite 205, Hamilton, NJ 08619. Information is available by calling him at 609/689-0599, ext. 151.
